Kara Pruett

The 1980 Miss Oceana was crowned January 11, 1980. A candidate and escort were elected by each class. Miss Oceana was chosen by the penny-a-vote method with proceeds being used for the yearbook.

The Senior class candidate was Kara Pruett of Kopperston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pruett. Kara was escorted by Mike Whisenant, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Whisenant of Oceana.

Evelyn Blankenship, was the Junior class candidate. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Blankenship of Cyclone. Evelyn was escorted by Jeff Brown son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Brown of Cyclone.

The Sophomore candidate was Michele Martin daughter of Ms. Carolyn Martin of Cyclone. Michele was escorted by Jim Sigmon son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sigmon of Glen Fork.

Patty Thompson, the first attendant, was the Freshman class candidate. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson of Oceana. Patty was escorted by David Vance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vance of Oceana.

The new Miss Oceana is Evelyn Blankenship. She was crowned by last year's Miss Oceana, Debbie Sullivan. Crownbearers were Thomas and Nichole Evans, children of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Evans Jr., of Oceana.

All of the candidates really worked hard and the yearbook would like to extend its appreciation for all their effort.

1980 Homecoming Floats

1st place — Sophomore float

2nd place — Senior float

3rd place — Junior float

4th place — Freshman float

Homecoming week is full of excitement, work, and rivalry among the classes here at O.H.S. It seems to be tradition for the Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors to compete with each other for 1st place in the float competition. Many people are disappointed, some are overjoyed, most are overworked, but all have much fun and make many memories during Homecoming week.

Great men moved the world,
and so can we all.
Few will have the greatness
to bend history itself,
but each of us
can work to change
a small portion of events,
and in the total of all those acts
will be written the history of this generation.

Mr. Ira Cook, Jr., was principal until January 2, 1980, when he was appointed assistant director at the Wyoming County Vocational School. An alumnus of O.H.S., Class of '59, Mr. Cook taught Social Studies at O.H.S. from 1962 to 1967, was assistant principal from 1967 to 1971, and became principal in 1971. Mr. Cook made a great contribution to O.H.S. and was well liked and respected by both students and staff.

PRINCIPAL
Ira Cook, Jr.
September 1971 to January 1980

Ms. Gerry Davis, promoted from assistant principal to principal when Mr. Cook left, is the first woman to be named a high school principal in Wyoming County and the third in West Virginia. After teaching at Road Branch Grade School and Oceana Grade School, Ms. Davis began teaching at O.H.S. in 1971 and became assistant principal in 1977. Ms. Davis is doing an excellent job as principal and states, "I am proud to be the first woman principal at Oceana High School and in Wyoming County."

PRINCIPAL
Gerry Davis

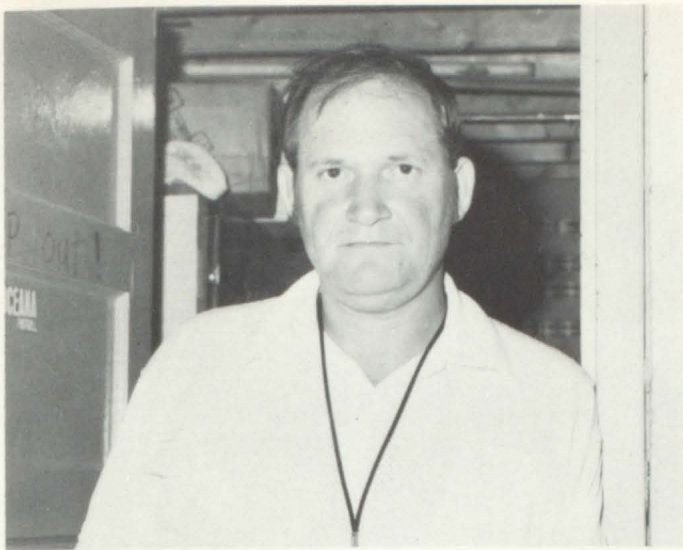

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
Fred Halsey

Mr. Fred Halsey received a B.S. in Education from Concord College and a Masters Degree in Secondary Administration from W.V.A. College of Graduate Studies. Before being named assistant principal at O.H.S. Mr. Halsey taught at Matheny Grade School for eight years.

Co-Editors-in-Chief
Robin Blankenship, Randy M. Brown, Sherri Cook

The Yearbook staff consisted of 15 members this year: 4 seniors, 3 juniors, 5 sophomores, and 3 freshmen. The staff is responsible for planning the book, getting pictures taken, and raising money to have the book printed. Projects to raise money included selling ads, the Miss Oceana competition, selling jerseys, and the sale of the book. Three members were inducted into the International Quill and Scroll this year. They were Randy M. Brown, Robin Blankenship, and Sherri Cook. This is the highest honor a high school student in a journalistic activity can achieve. Seniors leaving this year are Robin Blankenship, Randy M. Brown, Jennifer Brown Poole.

The Newspaper Staff consists of 13 members this year: 6 Seniors, 5 Juniors, 1 Sophomore, and 1 Freshman. The staff raised almost $2,000 for the publication of six papers by sponsoring a dance, selling ads, jewelry, and by the help of patrons. These activities make it possible for newspapers to be distributed free to all students. The Tomahawk Times received 2nd place honors for Best Newspaper News Writing at the United High School Press Association Convention, sponsored by the Marshall University School of Journalism. Six members of the Newspaper staff were accepted into the International Quill and Scroll, the highest honor a high school student involved in a journalistic activity can receive. They were Suzie Toler, Connie Stewart, Leisha Dishmon, Mike Whisenant, Ruta Harless, and Diana Osborne. The Six Seniors leaving the staff this year are Suzie Toler, Editor-in-chief; Connie Stewart and Debbie Blackburn, Co-Feature Editors; Mike Whisenant, Sports Editor; Jeff Toler Reporter; and Delilah Cook, Circulation Manager.
